Café Restaurant

High Tea Menu

Come to Padburys Café Restaurant to enjoy the afternoon in a delightful fashion indulging in a decadent high tea in one of Perth's most beautiful historic buildings.

We start off with a delicious selection of handmade savoury treats, followed by divinely decadent sweets made by our in-house patisserie and of course our famous fresh scones. All washed down with a selection of loose leaf teas or coffee served on our floral mix and match Royal Albert fine bone china teaware will bring a luxurious vintage feel to your afternoon tea.

Perfect for a get together, celebration or for any special occasion!

In addition you can email us on bookings@padburysrestaurant.com.au or you can leave us your details clearly on our message bank service and we will return your call within 48 hours. Please have your credit card handy as we do require a deposit to secure your booking. Please note the deposit is not refundable.

Q Why do I have to pay a deposit when I book?

A Because when you make a reservation we start preparing especially for you! We do not take any bookings without a 50% deposit. The balance is payable on the day of your booking. Should you need to re-schedule or increase your booking, we will happily do so [subject to availability], however we do not give refunds in the event of cancellation. We have a strict 'change of booking' policy, so if you need to adjust the number of people you have booked just inform us 24 hours prior to your booked sitting. If you do not inform us that your numbers are lower than your original booking, we still reserve the right to charge for the balance owing on the original booking made. Bookings are essential.

Q Can you cater to dietary needs?

A Yes! We can cater to gluten intolerance, vegan, and pregnancy requirements. We can't cater for those with serious nut allergies [we produce a large range of goods containing various nuts, so can not guarantee there would not be traces of nuts found in any given item]. We can't guarantee wide selection of choices for vegan or dairy intolerant.
